TRAINING SESSIONS AT HOUGHTON HALL EC - Updated

Dear Members,

We are pleased to announce that we have added sessions with Natalie Banks to our schedule. As requested by members these will start at 7pm – we have also added a little bit about the trainers we are working with – all of whom are highly experienced in their fields. We look forward to seeing you at these sessions.

Friday 15 th May
Beth Curtis	10am to 11am	Jumping
Beth Curtis	6pm to 7pm	Jumping
Monday 18 th May

Fran Berry	6pm to 7pm	Flatwork
Friday 29 th May
Beth Curtis	10am to 11am	Jumping
Beth Curtis	6pm to 7pm (may change to later time)	Jumping
Monday 8 th June
Fran Berry	10am to 11am	Flatwork
Natalie Banks	7pm to 8pm	Flatwork
Monday 15 th June
Tara Osborn	10am to 11am	Flatwork
Natalie Banks	7pm to 8pm	Flatwork

All groups are a minimum of 4, maximum of 6 persons at a cost of £20.00 per person per session. The flat work will be mixed ability, the jumping we will try to grade. If we have places left and can offer them to non-members, the cost to them will be £23.00. Payment is due at time of booking and until payment is received the place is not guaranteed. Sessions will be in any one of the three arenas, depending on where the boards/jumps are prior to or following competitions, but all will be on the excellent surfaces. When it comes to winter, we will endeavour to make sure we are inside.

Natalie Banks - Natalie has ridden internationally as a pony and junior rider, and has trained several of her own horses to advanced level, but she also has a great understanding of riders wanting to progress through the lower levels and gives positive and encouraging lessons

Jane Dawson-- Jane is a highly experienced rider who has taught RCS and PCS for many years. She believes in helping riders and horses of all abilities to improve. The majority of her work is dressage, show jumping and event training to affiliated level. Jane has run some thoroughly enjoyable sessions for H&HRC.

Tara Osborn-- Tara has ridden for the last 30 years and has vast experience with all types of equine. She has specialised in dressage for the last 15 years and has trained numerous horses and riders through to advanced level. Tara has produced a number of young horses from backing through their competitive career. Tara uses a sympathetic structured method of training for both horse and rider and trains each combination individually to suit their requirements. <http://www.longdrovedc.co.uk/index.php/about-tara>

Beth Curtis-- Beth has international competition experience and has worked and trained with top professionals both in the UK and abroad. Beth is very experienced in identifying training needs in horses and riders and then working with them to enable rider and horses to achieve their potential whilst having a lot of fun along the way. . Natalie is based at Houghton Hall but spent much of her competitive time in America. Sessions that Natalie has run at HH have been hugely popular. <http://www.btc-equestrian.co.uk/>

Fran Berry-- Fran runs regular sessions at Houghton Hall that are always oversubscribed. Fran is an II and has trained all levels for many years. She is extremely popular with all ages/abilities and still competes her own horses at BD dressage and Eventing. An immensely popular trainer

Anna Koch BHSPTT-- Anna runs regular sessions at Houghton Hall and has already run very successful and enjoyable sessions for HHRC this year. -
